Knockback: An opponent may be knocked backwards by CR damage (or CUT damage, if it did not make it through DR). Distance knocked back in yards/hex = Damage / (target's ST - 2), round down. The target must roll against ((DX or Acrobatics/Judo skill) +1 -yards/hex of knockback) or fall Prone (Perfect Balance gives +4). If the target is knocked into something/someone, they take CR damage (min 0) based on distance, 1 yard/hex of knockback = 1d-3 CR; 2 yds = 1d-2 CR; 3-4 yds = 1d-1 CR; 1d CR for every full 5 yds.

Knockdown: Whenever you suffer a Major Wound (> ½ max HP in a single hit, or a Crippling wound), or whenever you're struck in the head (Skull, Face, or Eye) or Vitals (that causes Shock)), you must make an immediate HT roll, or fall Prone and are Stunned.

Total Surprise: When the defenders are taken completely by surprise, they "Freeze" for 1d seconds (except w/Combat Reflexes), then Stunned.

Partial Surprise/Initiative: Leader for each side rolls 1d (+2 w/Combat Reflexes or +1 if anyone has Combat Reflexes), Leader with higher IQ: +1, Tactics +1, GM bonus ("we were really prepared") + 1, etc. Losing side is Stunned.
